SKAGWAY

Skagway, lying at the head of the Lynn Canal is the gateway to the Golden Interior. The small town sits at the top of the Inside Passage, framed by the deep waters of Taiya Inlet and the rugged Coast Mountains. Its distinctive name comes from the Tlingit word skagua, which is said to mean "home of the north wind." Legend has it that as the wind blows so much; you will never breathe the same air twice. Downtown Skagway was restored with old shop fronts and buildings and looks very much the same as it did when it was a gold rush boomtown in the 1890s. In many ways, Skagway remains a gold rush town today. Relive the Days of 98 on the "Skagway Street Car" or become a prospector and try your hand at gold panning at the "Klondike Gold Dredge". Whatever you choose to do, have a great time in Skagway!

DEAR CRUISE DIRECTOR

Question - I have been enjoying the Garden Café, and Four Seasons and Seven Seas. But I'm thinking maybe it's time to try something new. Can you tell me a bit about the Specialty Restaurants.

Answer -One of my favorite subjects! The Sun features some great restaurants for you to choose from, for just a small additional charge. Le Bistro, located on Deck 12, Aft, features some wonderful French/Med cuisine, a great atmosphere and the best Chocolate Fondue dessert I have ever had. And maybe try the Fire Star for your main course. It's a couple bucks more, but well worth it. Or, for some great Italian in an intimate setting, try Il Adagio, on Deck 5, Mid. Perhaps you're looking for more of a steakhouse? East Meets West, located on Deck 12, Aft features a wide range of surf and turf options with lots of side choices. And take the cheesecake for dessert! As well, Ginza, also on Deck 12, Aft, has two options for you. It has a traditional Sushi Bar with a la carte pricing, or Teppanyaki, where you can watch the expert chefs prepare your meal right in front of you. No matter which restaurant you choose, I'm sure you'll love the food, the atmosphere and the service!
